Entry Information

BACKGROUND

1987 is the 13th year of the Newark Black Film Festival, a six-week summer festival of films by black filmmakers and films featuring the history and culture of black people in America and elsewhere. In the past twelve years, 222 films have been viewed by a total audience of over 43,000 adults and children. The festival has been arranged and the films selected by a committee representing the sponsors and the community. Members are Flora Baldwin, City of Newark; James Brown, Newark Public Library; Gloria Hopkins Buck, Newark Board of Education; Mark Crumpton, WBGO-FM; John P. Hemeleski, New Jersey Institute of Technology; Clarence C. Lilley, Theatre of Universal Images and Connection Communications Corporation; Thomas C. Guy, Jr., independent filmmaker and Connection Communications Corporation; Clement Alexander Price, Rutgers University; Richard Wesley, scriptwriter and playwright, and Mary Sue Sweeney, Toni Jones and Rosemary Caulk, The Newark Museum. Consultants are Donald Bogle, film historian; Ayoka Chenzira, independent filmmaker; John Gregory Clemons, AT&T Information Systems; Oliver Franklin, Deputy City Representative for Arts & Culture, Philadelphia, and Gil Noble, Producer/Host, "Like It Is," WABC-TV.

AWARD COMPETITION

The Newark Black Film Festival Paul Robeson Awards were initiated as a biennial competition in 1985. The awards will be presented at the concluding evening of the summer festival, on Wednesday, July 29, 1987, in conjunction with a screening of the winning works.

ELIGIBILITY

Only 16mm optical track prints or 3/4" format videotapes released since January, 1985. Only non-commercial ("independent") films/videotapes over which filmmaker has had control of the finished piece are acceptable. Excluded are films/videotapes originally produced for industrial, commercial or studio purposes. Films/videotapes produced for or shown on television are eligible if they meet above criteria. Films/videotapes produced in other countries may be entered if they have an English-language soundtrack or subtitles and meet above criteria. For films previously or currently available in 35mm or other formats, only the 16mm release date is relevant.

CASH AWARDS

A total of $4,000 in cash prizes will be awarded at the discretion of the judges.

CATEGORIES

Entries must be submitted in one of the four categories below:

- Long Narrative (over an hour)
- Short Narrative (under an hour)
- Documentary
- Experimental

Entrants will be asked to specify choice of category. Categories may be deleted or modified on the basis of the actual entries received. Entrants will be notified of any change.

JUDGING OF ENTRIES

The Newark Black Film Festival 1987 Paul Robeson Awards will be judged by a separate panel for each category. The decision of the judges is final. The winning work in each category will receive a cash award of up to $1,000.

The judges may choose to withhold an award in a given category if no entries are of award caliber, and may designate additional awards outside of these categories.

ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

A completed entry form must accompany each print submitted, along with an entry fee of $20 per work (regardless of length). Titles in a series must be entered individually. Add $5 for works entered from outside the U.S. All entry fees must be in U.S. currency, payable to The Newark Museum Association. 16mm films which have been transferred to videotapes may be submitted in 3/4" format for judging, if desired. Winning entries will be screened at awards presentation in 16mm or 3/4" video format only.

SHIPPING

Prints (with cans, cases and leaders clearly marked with your name and title of work) should be shipped to:

The Newark Museum
49 Washington Street
P.O. Box 540
Newark, New Jersey 07101

All works will be returned via UPS and insured for $200 (UPS will not ship to a post office box). Ship all films and tapes in standard, re-usable shipping containers and include a pre-printed return label for each work.

LIABILITY

Although every possible care will be taken with films while in our possession, neither the Newark Black Film Festival/The Newark Museum Association nor its judging committees assume liability for loss or damage. Entrant also indemnifies the Newark Black Film Festival/The Newark Museum Association against possible copyright infringement resulting from screening or exhibition of works.

SCREENINGS

Award-winning works will be screened on the final evening of The Newark Black Film Festival, Wednesday, July 29, 1987, at Newark Symphony Hall, 1020 Broad Street in downtown Newark. If length of winning works dictates, the screenings may also take place on the preceding Wednesday, July 22.

ENTRY DEADLINE

Films, videotapes, accompanied by entry forms, must be received at The Newark Museum by Wednesday, April 8.
